Whitehouse, a third year veteran from Langley, BC led UFV to a first place team finish at the Okanagan Golf Club in the PACWEST Tournament No. 2. Whitehouse shot an amazing 132 for the two-day tournament helping the Cascades to a 13 stroke victory over second place VIU Mariners with a team score of 309.

On day 1, Whitehouse shot a low score of 66 to take a 2 stroke lead over teammate Aaron Pauls (Chilliwack, BC) who shot a 68 on the day. On day 2, Whitehouse mirrored his day 1 score, shooting another 66 to take a 3 stroke lead over Camosun's Brady Stead (Vernon, BC) and Jarred Callbeck (Victoria, BC) both with scores of 69.

Whitehouse's two-day total of 132 was 7 strokes ahead of second place Aaron Pauls who shot 139 on the day.

After two PACWEST tournaments, Whitehouse has a 279 four-day total, 3 strokes ahead of UBCO's William Deck who has a 281 four-day total. The Next PACWEST Tournament is on September 28-29 at Bear Mountain Golf Course in Victoria, B.C.
